FROM : The Director General LILIA B. DE LIMA L. B. De Lima

SUBJECT : Energy Regulatory Commission Resolution No. 10-02, Series of 2004, Setting the Deadline for Submission of Application for Certificate of Compliance (COC) and Setting Penalties for Non-Compliance by Entities Owning Self-Generation Facilities.

DATE : 07 March 2005

The Energy Regulatory Commission (ERC) has set 31 March 2005 as the deadline for companies with self-generation facilities (SGFs) to submit their applications for the Certificate of Compliance (COC) with the ERC.

Economic Zone locator enterprises owning SGFs, but which have not yet complied with the ERC requirement, are advised to submit directly to the ERC their COC applications to avoid paying penalties imposed by the ERC.

Please visit the ERC website (<http://www.erc.gov.ph>) for copies of the ERC Resolution No. 10-02 Setting the Deadline for Entities Owning Self-Generation Facilities to Submit Application for COC and Prescribing Fines and Penalties for Non-Compliance. The application forms and guidelines are also available at the ERC website.

PEZA has already forwarded to the ERC the COC applications forms of economic zone locator enterprises that submitted their COC applications to us and which therefore, should disregard this notice.

For the strict compliance of all concerned.
