Philippine Economic Zone Authority

Dear Ms. Alguso,

We are happy to have been your partner for the past four years in your MarkLogic NoSQL projects. In line with this, we would like to remind you that the one-year maintenance support for the three (3) MarkLogic Essential Enterprise (Production) Licenses and one (1) MarkLogic Essential Enterprise (Staging) License will end on June 26,2021 , and is therefore due for renewal.

As our loyal partner, we are maintaining our quote for last year except for a very minimal Peso - US dollar exchange rate adjustment as follows:

PRICING FOR One (1) YEAR RENEWAL OF SUPPORT

Total support	P 1,330,000.00
Add 12% VAT	159,600.00
Total in Php	1,489,600.00

Breakdown of maintenance support per license is as follows:

Three (3) 8-core packs Essential Enterprise, Production	P 1,278,920.68
One (1) 8-core packs Essential Enterprise, Stagin	210,679.32
Total maintenance support inclusive of VAT	1,489,600.00

The Maintenance Support Contract covers:

1. Services include the following:
 - a. Major and minor service releases
 - b. Patches
 - c. Documentation updates
 - d. Bug fix information
2. Software releases are made generally available for licensed installations to supported customers at no additional license fee.
3. Updates however, do not include separately licensed features, editions, or types.
4. Partners are responsible for downloading and installing the updates.

In order to renew the Maintenance Support Contract, please sign the conforme portion below and send back to us prior to the contract expiration date for you to enjoy continued benefits and support services for your licenses.

We thank you for allowing us to be your partner in your information technology endeavors. Please let us know of any other assistance that you will need in the pursuit of your projects.

Sincerely,

Benson Ryan C. Cruz
