MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR NO. 2019-039

TO : Economic Zone Locator Enterprises
FROM : BGen CHARITO B. PLAZA, MNSA, PhD
SUBJECT : Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) Learning Application
DATE : 20 November 2019

We wish to inform you that the Department of Labor and Employment – Bureau of Working Conditions (DOLE-BWC) has released an Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) Learning Application which can be accessed through the following link:

<http://bwc.dole.gov.ph/osh-law>

The DOLE-BWC has released this application to introduce the basic concepts of OSH and Hazard Identification, Risk Assessment and Control (HIRAC) and to aid with the Information and Education Campaign for the Revised Occupational Safety and Health Law (RA 11058) and its Implementing Rules and Regulations (DOLE Department Order 198). The OSH learning application takes around 10-15 minutes to finish and can be used as an orientation tool to new employees or to those employees that require basic information on occupational safety and health in the workplace.

The salient parts of the application include:

- General Information on Occupational Safety and Health;
- Identification of Hazards (Safety and Health Hazards);
- Accident (definition, causes, near miss);
- Control Measures (hierarchy of controls); and
- Evaluation Exam.

If there are questions in relation with the said application, you are encouraged to contact directly the DOLE-BWC through email at bwcsecretary@gmail.com or askbwc@gmail.com or call their office at (+632) 8527-3478. You may also contact the PEZA-Environmental Safety Group through email at ensd@peza.gov.ph or call (+632) 8551-6561.

For your guidance and information.
